Small businesses can hear directly from the experts at Facebook, Google, Yelp

April 4, 2012

WASHINGTON – Congressman Charles F. Bass (NH-02) today announced there is still room available for individuals interested in attending his Small Business Social Media Forum on Friday, April 6, 2012 from 9:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. The event will be held in the Sweeney Hall Auditorium at the New Hampshire Technical Institute, located at 31 College Drive in Concord.

The forum will feature presentations from representatives of Facebook, Google, Yelp, the New Hampshire Division of Travel and Tourism, and the New Hampshire High Technology Council and is designed to help small businesses utilize online tools to attract customers and grow their businesses.

Bass said:

"I'm hosting a social media forum for small businesses this Friday so employers and employees can learn more about the online tools available to them. As part of my ongoing outreach to constituents and small businesses, I want to give them the opportunity to hear directly from the social media experts and learn how they can leverage these tools to grow their businesses. I'm looking forward to the event and encourage anyone interested to join us on Friday morning. There's plenty of room."

Constituents with questions, or who want to RSVP, should contact Bass' Concord Office at (603) 226-0064 or email Bass.Events@mail.house.gov .
