Please join me for a live, toll-free telephone town meeting on Wednesday, May 16, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. EST

to discuss issues affecting New Hampshire veterans and those returning from military service and to answer your questions about how we can continue to ensure those who have served our nation receive the care and benefits they have earned and deserve.

We will be joined by Lisa Aldridge, the Transition Assistance Advisor for the State of New Hampshire, and Miguel Morales, the Veterans Business Development Officer for the Small Business Administration in New Hampshire, who will both be available to answer questions and provide information about services such as health care, counseling, employment assistance, and other resources for veterans and servicemembers.
